(d) by when these problems are likely to be sorted out so as to enable the entrepreneurs, including the Non-Resident Indians, to start production?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) According to Delhi Administration, in the Okhla Industrial Estate there is no separate Electronics Complex. However, a bunch of 18 single storey sheds was constructed and allotted to the following categories of entrepreneurs in the year 1985:—

(i) Schemes in the Electronics areas including components.

(ii) Schemes in the Computer areas including components and software.

(iii) Schemes involving NRIs with import of advanced technology.

(iv) Foreign Collaborations with equity participation.

(v) Schemes in industrial processing and control equipments.

The allottees were facing some difficulties in starting production due to inadequate power and water supply.

(b) It is not possible to estimate loss of production due to any particular cause.

(c) None of these entrepreneurs have shown any firm export order backed by letter of credit.

(d) the extra substraction has been energised to provide permanent power to these sheds. The problem regarding water supply has been resolved.
